

CENTRAL LINN SCHOOL BOARD UPDATE

December 12, 2016

COMMUNICATION

- Each month, teachers may nominate students for the Superintendent's Award. The award is given in recognition of outstanding personal accomplishments. Recipients for December were: Jenna Baskin, First Grade; Addison Wolff, Third Grade; Cole Weber, Eighth Grade; and Sabrina Smith-Amos, Twelfth Grade.
- Architect Lee Gray gave a presentation on Concrete Thin Shell School Projects; dome shaped structures presented as energy efficient, safe, sustainable and cost effective.

BOARD ACTION

- Approved meeting minutes of the regular Board meeting of November 14, 2016, as submitted.
- Appointed Director Schneider as Board Communications Officer (BCO). The purpose of the BCO will be to increase the flow of information from the School Board and the Administration to the Central Linn Community. The Board reviewed a draft outline of authorized BOC functions.

BUSINESS

- Acknowledged the hire of Mikayla Neddeau as student transporter; Rachel Travis and Kallina Lathrom as education assistants; and the resignation of education assistant, Sheila Sloan and football coach, Dusty Burchfield.
- Reviewed as first reading, school board policy GBA, Equal Employment Opportunity.

REPORT

- Superintendent Gardner reported he had toured the elementary school with Sara Bergsund, of Bergsund & Delaney Architecture and Planning regarding the development of a rehabilitation plan with costs for the building. He hoped to have more information for the January meeting.
- A meeting with Samaritan Health and Willamette Neighborhood Housing is scheduled for January 12, regarding the Brownsville building. A representation of Board members was encouraged to attend this meeting.
